

George Furlipa

George Furlipa is in his tenth year working with Nease High School, with this being his third as the Colorguard Captionhead. His responsibilities include day to day management of the program as well as being a member of the Marching Band Design Team. As a graduate of St. Augustine High School (2004), George participated as one of the final members of the “Coast One Winterguard” organization under the Direction of Jeff Dodd. It is there where he received his fundamental roots in the activity and was able to learn many teaching philosophies while serving as an intern to Mr. Dodd his junior and senior years.

Following high school, George performed with The Boston Crusaders (2004), Carolina Crown (2006), The Bluecoats (2008), Northeast Independent Winterguard (2005-2009), The Pride of Cincinnati Winterguard (2010), and Pegasus World (2015), who he also choreographed for at the time.

Throughout his performance career and thereafter, he has served as a director, designer, choreographer, and technician for many groups throughout the country, including Dobyms-Bennett High School (Tennessee), Center Grove High School (Indiana), Skyview High School (Washington), The Cavaliers (Illinois), The Boston Crusaders (Massachusetts), Pegasus Independent Winterguard (Florida), and Onyx Independent Winterguard (Ohio). George is very excited to be continuing the legacy at Nease High School and is looking forward to the upcoming seasons.
