

Katie Sexton

Katie's band career started in 2010 when she started at Fleming Island High School as a concert flute player and color guard member.

She graduated from Fleming Island High School in 2014 after participating in a multi-championship winning program. She then went on to march at Spirit of Atlanta in the summer of 2015 and spent the 2016 winter season marching with Paradigm who returned to finals that year. Katie aged out with The Cadets in 2017 and hopes to return to the WGI World Class floor soon.

Katie began teaching at Fleming Island High School in 2015 and was a full-time staff member through the winter of 2018. She aided in the Junior Varsity program in 2016 and directed the Junior Varsity program in 2018, as well as being present for the Varsity program's first two WGI finalist appearances. She joined the Allen D. Nease color guard staff in the 2018 winter season where she ran the Junior Varsity program and assisted with the Open team. Katie is excited to join the Allen D. Nease staff full time this year and assist in all color guard
